This year the yearbook staff found its inspiration for the 2003 yearbook from John Montgomery's lyrics, "Life's a dance, you learn as you go." Truly, the dance of life is never finished. As the class of 2003, and as individuals, we try to find our footing. At times, it seems as if we have found the rhythm and life appears to fall into place. Then, suddenly, the beat changes, and our steps must be re-thought. Every individual experiences change whether or not they are aware of it. Sometimes, change is viewed as negative, and many try to turn away from it. On the other hand, if we welcome change and let it bring the good into our lives, we can truly start to "dance". From every life experience, we have learned something that broadens our perspectives. Our family, friends, and acquaintances, all add to our lives. In June, 154 of us will dance into the future hand in hand. As we dance this beautiful "waltz", at times we may lose our footing and our way, but those who are important and touch our lives will be our guides. Some of us will lead, while at other times we may follow. Sometimes we do both. Either way we will be guides for other people who are stumbling, just as they can be for us. So, point your feet toward the future in this dance of life. Good luck, Class of 2003, this is our time to dance.

Medfield's Music Thrives

The success of the orchestra, band, jazz ensembles, and chorus has grown in the past few years. This year was no exception. The orchestra started off the year with the infamous Spaghetti with Santa dinner. But being invited to play at the Breaker's Mansion in December was a new experience for the whole group. They had multiple successful concerts for the High School as well. The band started the year off by supporting the football team with their upbeat songs and heartfelt chants in the pep-band, to which the football team say credits their successful season. During the year the band marched in the Memorial Day Parade and the Christmas Parade and also helped out at the Spaghetti with Santa dinner. The jazz ensembles practiced hard every Thursday night, helping to bring their renowned skills with the brass to an all time high. This year a second jazz ensemble was formed due to the elevated interest in the style of music. The chorus, conducted by Ms. Terry Wroten, also enjoyed a year of high notes and deep crescendos as they elevated their level of competition as well as their popularity in and around town. Every year the music department allows its music students to participate in challenging competitions, such as the MICCA festival at Foxboro High School. But this year was the first time the groups were allowed to compete internationally and play in a festival in Montreal, Canada. Senior Ashley Foley stated, "We were all very excited to have had the opportunity to show our skills and style to the world and we learned more about the styles of music from other places." The groups concluded the school year with Pop's Night to celebrate their year's attainments. As they continue to soar to new heights, the Medfield High School music department looks forward to a successful upcoming year.

We all worked hard as a team selling advertisements, cropping pictures, and designing pages for each deadline. Led by Ms. Thomas we tried to create a unique yearbook for everyone to enjoy.

Soul

Soul
such a word sings
to the heart
calls for the complexities of the world to flower forth unto all rejoices in the powerful crush of each wave, the endless upheaval of tested grains guards the dignity of each magnolia petal wrenches itself out in carriers of tears, paint, and pen
the soul churns beneath, returning wisdom for pain, strength for hardship
cries the song of beauty and hungers for a new day
always and never done
breathing continually through seismic cycles of creation and destruction
the word.

A Record Setting Season

The football team dominated in the Tri-Valley League this year. Early in the season, the Warriors were forced to overcome the loss of senior co-captain Mike Oppel to mono and then a hip dislocation. On the field, the Warriors were led by co-captains Dave Meaney and Kevin Gavaghan. The team remained strong on both sides of the ball this year with leading rusher, junior fullback Kevin Hall, topping 1,100 yards. Sophomore halfback Brian Lee followed close behind with 500 yards. The defense was led by junior linebackers Erik Abazorious and Nate Mintz. This season marked the first time in over 14 years that the football team won eight games. The 6-0 win over Westwood earlier in the season broke a twenty-nine year losing streak. Although it was not the most pivotal point of the season, it was a game which the entire team, especially the seniors, will remember forever. The seniors would like to thank their coaches and wish the team the best of luck next year.

Kevin Gavaghan

"I'm extremely proud of the way this team played this year. Everyone worked hard so that this season is something that we never forget."

Michael Oppel

"This season and the last four years were great. I'm really going to miss Medfield football. Good luck next year fellas!"

David Meaney

"I'm disappointed that the season is over but so proud of the accomplishments of our team, from the starting offense and defense to the scrub offense and defense. We all worked so hard this year that it made every victory that much more significant."

The 2002-2003 season was enjoyable for both the girls' and boys' indoor track teams. With the help of new coach Matt Cherner (also the Medfield High School Athletic Trainer) and Mauri Reynolds, tri-captains Krista Suojanen, Stephanie Agrimanakis, and Pandi Sullivan led the girls' team to victory. The team finished with a great record in the Tri-Valley League and with their new coach the team hopes to win the title of Tri-Valley League Champions next year.

The boys' team was coached by Nick Stevens and Ian Gagne. The team's tri-captains were Will Redden, Mike Oppel, and Jared Marshall. Once again the team received the title of TVL Champions, finishing their triumphant season with an undefeated record. They had a very strong presence at every league. The boys hope that with stamina and team spirit, they will be able to finish with yet another Tri-Valley League Championship title next year.

Mike Oppel

"Four great years of track with Mr. Stevens! I'm gonna miss it... a little."

Jared Marshall

"I'm proud of my boys. We started the season as amatures and we came away as heroes. We shocked the TVL, the captains, and our coach. We found strength in our weakness and took the title. We all make choices, we chose victory!!"

Will Redden

"Winter track is once again consistantly excellent!"

Pandi Sullivan

"We had a really great season. It was a young team with a new coach, but I think we surprised a lot of people."

Stephanie Agrimanakis

We had a great season this year and we did much better than we expected. Even though we had a young team, we all worked hard together and finished the season 3rd in the Tri-Valley League. Our first year coach, Matt Cherner, did a great job of quickly getting us in shape to be tough competitors against everyone. Good luck girls, and thanks for a great season."

"Gotta move, cause time is a' wasting,
There's such a lot of livin' to do....
There's music to play, places to go, people to see,....
Crazy clothes and motorboat races,
Broadway lights and wide-open spaces,
There's such a lot of livin' to do.
Life's a ball if only you know it,
And it's all just waiting for you!"

David,

Thank you David, its been a great adventure. We never knew what might be around the next bend. We saw a solid work ethic, a commitment to achieving goals, an occasional bump, a random rut, focus, determination, leadership, and caring for others before yourself. What we gained was immeasurable love and pride for a wonderful young man. Keep us guessing about what's coming up and we'll hold on tight. We have no doubts that there are many more thrills to come.

Dedication to Mrs. Mann

Remember the wonderful people we meet along the way.

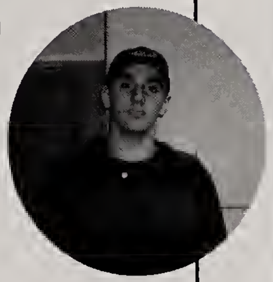
Mike Joseph

"Mrs. Mann is one of the many things I will miss most about MHS. Her warmth and kindness will radiate forever."

Katie Wallace & Angie Palombo

"We love Frau Mann. She is the number one, best person to brighten your day when it is snowing, raining, and below five degrees outside."

Matt Muir



"One day Mrs. Mann found out it was my birthday. When I was driving home, she pulled me over and I immediately thought I was in trouble. But when I got out of the car she just wanted to give me a hug."

Even on the coldest of days there is always one person with a smile on her face, waving to all. That person is Mrs. Mann. That is why the Class of 2003 decided to dedicate the yearbook to her. She has a kind heart that is open to all students, and she easily plays the role of "grandmother" to each one of us. In addition, she is always willing to share stories of her life and loves. Along with her gentle spirit, Mrs. Mann is an efficient crossing guard. Keeping children safe in the most difficult of situations is her main focus. From all of the students at Medield High School we would like to thank you, Mrs. Mann, for beginning and ending each of our days with a smile.

"Life is a journey, it can take you anywhere you choose to go. As along as you're learning, you'll find all you'll ever need to know."

—Christina Aguilera

So through the years we are still friends.

"My favorite class trip was in eighth grade when our class went to Washington D.C. We have a lot of great memories to take with us from the trip. Memories including running outside and just chilling in our rooms. We also saw many cool attractions in the D.C. area."

— Shane Medeiros

"Being the new kid in sixth grade made me a little nervous. But with events like the Greek banquet it was easy to make friends with other gods and goddesses."

— Jackie Crerar

"The anticipation of falling into the long-awaited, mud pit of Dale Street School is one of my most vivid memories."

— Nicole Loiacono

"I remember wall ball everyday at recess at Wheelock. We must have lost so many tennis balls on the roof!"

— Brendan Merrell

Through thick and thin we will come together to help each other along the way.

A Fitting Farewell

We entered the great hallways of MHS four short years ago,
With fire in our hearts and ambition in our minds we were all ready to go.
We held our breath on our very first day, as our schedules were passed out.
Not knowing where we were going, our survival was plagued with doubt.
But surely enough time passed, and accustomed, we grew to our classes.
And every time a senior passed, we would all pray for our… lunch money!
We rang in the New Year, Y2K, with a great joy and a lot of laughter.
Our principal, he had other plans, for he was to quit that year, not the year after.
And on we went to our sophomore year, a time of revelations.
Some had three teachers in just one class, causing much trepidation.
Introduced were we to a new principal, a change in the school had occurred.
A construction plan was now to take place, hopefully the dream not deferred.
And now we were of age to begin driving our automobiles.
Bill Rehill took center stage, alias "the madman behind the wheel."
A quick year had passed us all, and we were ready for upper classmanship,
Our high school days were half over now; we were ready for the rest of the trip.
A rocky start greeted many juniors who returned for a third year in a row,
What! No backpacks or parking allowed? Some of these rules had to go.
Thus began our toughest year, filled with plans for tomorrow.
Our time was filled with work and play and rarely sorrow.
We must not forget the tragedy that filled our hearts with remorse,
September 11th will always remind us of terror's evil force.
But let us not forget that unbelievable season of the Patriots.
Superbowl champions, and heroes to us all, especially when they became the best.
The knowledge in our hearts and the passion in our minds, made us ready to be seniors.
Finally, the year had come when we could prove that we were achievers.
We have traveled the road to adulthood and now we exit that great hallway,
Our teenage years have been well-lived doin' it the Medfield way.
Keep your socks on folks we must not let Mr. Gibbs down.
It's not what you can do, it is what you ought to do, and do it without a frown.
Don't be on time, be early, and the same goes for the construction project.
We all make choices, seniors, and to our grade we'll never forget.
So a final farewell I bring to you, as we must now depart our own ways.
Peace to you on your journey, alviterzaine, aloha, adios, G'day!

— Jared Marshall
